

ARKO Corp., the 6th Largest Convenience Store Operator, Announces Extended Wholesale Agreement with Core-Mark

May 26, 2021

Thirty-two month agreement increases total locations served by Core-Mark from 865 to 1,055

RICHMOND, Va. and WESTLAKE, Texas, May 26, 2021 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- GPM Investments, LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of ARKO Corp. (Nasdaq: ARKO) and Core-Mark Holding Company, Inc. (NASDAQ: CORE), today announced the signing of an extended 32-month master supply agreement with Core-Mark International, Inc. as part of a consolidation of the company's wholesalers and continued growth strategy. The agreement will increase the number of GPM store locations for which Core-Mark provides service from 865 to 1,055.

"We're excited to continue working with Core-Mark to bring a strong assortment of products and value to even more customers through efficient supply chain operations," said Mike Bloom, GPM's Executive Vice President, Marketing and Merchandising. "As a strong partner of ours, Core-Mark shares our vision for profitable and aggressive growth. This agreement allows us to create new synergies through the consolidation of our wholesalers and allows Core-Mark to leverage our size and scale as we continue to build out our family of community brands."

Under the supply agreement, Core-Mark agreed to provide transition services to facilitate the transfer of services from certain of GPM's previous wholesalers. Core-Mark will also continue offering support services for GPM's imports and specialty products program.

Core-Mark distributes fresh food and broad-line merchandise to convenience stores in the United States. Core-Mark will continue to be GPM's largest single supplier, distributing products across 29 different categories to its portfolio of approximately 1,400 stores.

"Our relationship with GPM spans over a decade and continues to thrive through a mutual commitment to driving growth. GPM's executive team has built a scalable platform from which to accelerate their store count and per store volumes and we are excited to play a part in that journey," said Scott E. McPherson, President and Chief Executive Officer. "We place great value in this partnership and will continue to work hard to bring GPM strong service, product and technology innovation and support for their expansion efforts."
